Message

As India moves towards becoming a global economic powerhouse, the Micro, Small and Medium enterprises are set to play a crucial role in bringing this metamorphosis. With the government's initiatives like 'Make in India,' 'Start-up India,' 'Stand-up India' we are witnessing an encouraging surge in innovation, manufacturing, and exports, which are creating a robust foundation for economic growth. Moreover, the ongoing digitalization and adoption of Industry 4.0 will further unlock immense potential within the MSME sector, making them more competitive in the global marketplace. At NSIC, we are committed to empowering MSMEs through a wide range of services, which include facilitating access to Finance, Technology, Marketing support and capacity building. Our continuous efforts to foster an enabling ecosystem have been instrumental in the growth and global competitiveness of MSMEs. By creating a bridge between MSMEs and schemes of the Government of India and by providing market linkages, NSIC as a Public Sector Organization has been at the forefront for ensuring that these businesses not only survive but also thrive in a rapidly evolving economic landscape.

NSIC AT 70: POWERING THE GROWTH ENGINE OF INDIA'S MSMEs

Fund Limited is anchoring a growth fund for investing in the equity of MSMEs. This fund named as Self Reliant India (SRI) Fund is a sovereign Fund of Funds that invests in the daughter Funds who in turn provide equity capital for growth and graduation of MSMEs.

Its mission is clear: "To promote and support Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) Sector" through integrated support services. With values rooted in service excellence, integrity, accountability and stakeholder satisfaction, NSIC's vision is to be the premier organisation fostering the MSME ecosystem in India.

Leadership with vision: CMD Dr. Subhransu Sekhar Acharya's Mission NSIC 2.0

At the helm of this transformative journey is Dr. Subhransu Sekhar Acharya, Chairman-cum-Managing Director of NSIC. Under his leadership, NSIC has been undergoing a substantial evolution. Dr. Acharya envisions NSIC 2.0—an organisation that is transparent, system-driven, and resilient.

Reflecting on the past year, he shared, "Year 2024 was a remarkable year in many ways. Performance of NSIC was at an all-time best and it received an 'Excellent' MoU Rating from DPE. We reaffirmed our commitment to build a future-ready organisation through a strategy of transparency, innovation, and employee capacity-building. The growth momentum continued through 2025." In a short span, the organisation, with an intent to catapult to the newer version of itself, has initiated a range of activities to shore up its human resources, development of new IT systems, identifying key strengths and acting upon those etc.

Key highlights include initiation of the process of introduction of new business lines, a fair and transparent career progression policy, rollout of advanced Management Development Programmes for capacity building of its human resource base etc. The organisation is aiming to elevate its status in the CPSE segmentation from its current Schedule 'B' Mini Ratna status.

Dr. Acharya's leadership emphasises inclusivity and entrepreneurship. He firmly believes that value creation at every level is essential to provide momentum to the nation's growth objectives. Only through promotion of

As India steps into a new phase of economic growth, one organisation that stands tall in empowering its foundational entrepreneurial segment—the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs)—is the National Small Industries Corporation Ltd. (NSIC). A Government of India enterprise under the Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs), NSIC celebrated 70 glorious years of service to the nation this February 2025.

Established in 1955, NSIC has consistently played a catalytic role in the development of small enterprises across the country. With ISO 9001:2015 certification, a pan-India presence through its network of offices, Technical Centres and Training cum Incubation Centres, NSIC has empowered hundreds of thousands of entrepreneurs by providing critical support in marketing, finance, technology, capacity-building and more, thus serving the cause of ease of doing business for MSMEs. Moreover, NSIC through its subsidiary NSIC Venture Capital entrepreneurship and enterprise creation, we can create value that shall support our Atmanirbhar objectives. At NSIC's Livelihood Business Incubators, positioned as "Enterprise Creation Labs", the trainees are made creators of micro business entities by providing them a range of services from Business Literacy, Enterprise Literacy, Skill Ingredients depending upon the choice of the concerned trainee to providing them support towards bank linkage and market linkage. Even in the Technology Service Centres spread across the country, the trainees are not only made industry-ready but also encouraged to become job creators rather than job seekers. He firmly believes in the power of entrepreneurship in nation-building and has aligned the activities of the organisation towards focused enterprise creation leading to creation of opportunities.

Engaging with Policymakers and thinkers

To finetune its policies and practices, NSIC is actively engaging with the top policymakers in the Government. With an intent to learn from the experience of such personalities, Dr. V. Anantha Nageswaran, Chief Economic Advisor (CEA), Ministry of Finance, Government of India, along with his team were invited to visit NSIC and its centres at Delhi. The visit aimed to provide first-hand insights into NSIC's role in MSME development. The delegation was given a comprehensive walk-through of the Enterprise Creation Lab (Livelihood

They witnessed demonstrations of Industry 4.0 applications, including smart factories, robotics, 3D printing, AR/VR simulations, and data analytics being leveraged for skilling MSMEs. Impressed by NSIC's scale and impact, the delegation appreciated the Corporation's innovation-led initiatives and reiterated the importance of building a resilient MSME sector for India's economic sustainability.

Exploring reach of Indian MSMEs across boundaries

With an objective to expand boundaries for the Indian MSME sector, NSIC has reinvigorated its efforts of outreach through MoUs with its international counterparts across several countries. It has been touching base with public and private producers, facilitating participation in international trade expos and strategic matchmaking B2B events and business linkage programmes. Cross border cooperation in areas such as technology, market connects and business discovery efforts are ongoing for benefiting the Indian MSME sector.

A major highlight in NSIC's international foray this year was a landmark Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Slovak Business Agency (SBA). The MoU was signed by CMD, NSIC Dr. Acharya and Mr. Marian Letovaneč, Director of National and International Programmes, SBA, in the presence of both heads of state at the Presidential Palace in Bratislava. The agreement aims to enhance MSME competitiveness and foster bilateral cooperation in innovation, technology, and business linkages between Indian and Slovak enterprises. In another significant international outreach, Sh. Kartikeya

NSIC invites MSMEs to Explore Lucrative Business Opportunities in the Infrastructure Sector

The National Small Industries Corporation (NSIC) is pleased to announce a significant initiative aimed at fostering growth and collaboration of Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) in the burgeoning infrastructure sector. NSIC is actively seeking to identify reliable MSME partners for the distribution of various materials manufactured by them, thereby enhancing their product distribution network and providing substantial business opportunities to these MSMEs. This strategic move underscores NSIC's commitment to supporting the MSME ecosystem and leveraging their capabilities to meet the growing demands of the infrastructure industry. By collaborating with MSMEs capable of supplying products in substantial quantities, NSIC also aims to strengthen its supply chain and contribute to national development.

All interested MSMEs will have the unique opportunity to get themselves enlisted under the SPRS Scheme and other schemes of the Corporation, which are designed to facilitate their growth and integration into larger business frameworks.

Interested MSMEs are encouraged to contact their nearest NSIC office for further information and enlistment
